

Our Father's Point of View

Sometimes we question God's motives when our lives don't go as planned.
We may even get angry at it's unfairness
as we try to understand.

Do you think it's a punishment for something you have done or believe it's a mistake, because your life had just begun?
Take time to stop and see it from our Father's point of view.
Your injury wasn't a punishment, but our God just loving you.
He picked you out of thousands to fill a task He needed done.
He chose you to be a blessing for all those that need one.
The day was not an ending of the dreams that you recall.
God just rearranged their outcome, because you were dreaming way too small.
There are many hurting people who are lost and are in pain, but you can show them by example and be their sunshine in the rain.
Listen with your heart and don't let your head get in the way.
Keep looking up through the trials you face and let prayer begin each day.
Remember you're a child of God and he wants what's best for you.
Let him give you what you need as only he can do.