

Precious

I'm so proud to be your mom, Honey.
I wish that you could see
The joy I feel within my heart
To know you're part of me.
I always hoped that you'd stay little,
But God had other plans.
He had a job for you to do
And now I understand.
The job required lots of love
And lots of patience, too.
He asked that in the times of heartache
That you would walk right through.
There are many mothers here on earth,
But you stand out from the rest.
You walk in faith and let God lead -
You really are the best!
If I were able to be reborn,
(A feat that will never be!)
I'd want to have you as my mom,
Because of what I see.
You live, you love, you walk in faith,
I'm so proud that I can say -
I love you, Precious, with all my heart.
Have the Happiest Mother's Day!
