

The Son

Come to Jesus when your heart breaks in two.
He sees the tears flow from your eyes and wants to comfort you.
Life is sometimes filled with pain. It can be so hard to bear, but Jesus waits with open arms. He always will be there.

Let him be the "Son" that lights your way
and helps you sleep at night.

Do not fear what lies ahead.

You're always in his sight.

Death's not the end of life for us.

It's a door we must go through.

So share love with all who cross your path
and do all that you can do.

Take control of what you think and feel.

Then give praise to God above.

Let go your pain and see the blessing surrounded with His love.

Pursue your dreams and never give up hope.

Then believe what you can't see.

God is the Comfort that you seek and heaven is your destiny.
