

This Day Will End

When the world caves in all around you
And you feel alone with no place to hide,
Don't lose hope Jesus still is beside you.
He knows the pain you feel deep inside.
Jesus knows what it's like to be hurting.
Jesus knows the deep pain in your heart.
Jesus knows the sadness that this world can carry,
Because he felt it before he had to depart.
Only Jesus understands all of your sorrow.
It's Jesus who can help you through the pain.
Give Jesus all the burden you are feeling.
Let him help you so it doesn't remain.
Life is hard, but when you put your trust in Jesus,
You will find that all sorrow will flee.
With his arms wrapped tight around you,
You'll get a glimpse of what heaven will be.
Call on Jesus when your heart breaks in silence.
Take his hand and let him lead you through each day.
Keep looking up! You can trust all he tells you.
Be not afraid. Let him lead the way.
Tonight when you lay down exhausted,
Close your eyes and know this day will end.
Then tomorrow you will feel Jesus' presence
And the pain you feel will be on the mend.
