

Within Your Heart

Do you ever question God and ask why she had to die
or do you put your faith in Him and never wonder why?

You prayed that you could say good-bye
so the pain still lingers on,
but if you could see heaven
you'd know she's right where she belongs.

She can exercise with angels and not worry about her weight.

Then when she stops and talks with Jesus
she tells him of a man so great.

She asked God if He would let you keep the memories that you shared
and the nights you sit in darkness
that you'd remember how much she cared.

God made the stars to shine at night
and He made the sunlight, too.

He made all that's good upon the earth
and He made the two of you.

He timed your lives so you would meet and let you fall in love.
The bond you share within your heart is blessed by God above.

I pray God sends the brightest star to remind you of the day when the two of you will meet again and she'll never go away.