

You're Never Far Apart

Come to me, My child, and let Me hold you tight.
I know the hurt you're going through when you remember evil's night.
It took the life of the one you love,
but the soul is here with me.
You see evil can't destroy what's good so believe -
I'll set you free.
For every life that evil steals, I placed a star above to remind you of the special times
you shared with the one you love.
Don't let evil steal away the memories in your heart.
I put them there to help you know you'll never be apart.
One day you'll be united and all evil will be gone.
Keep looking up and don't give up hope.
You are right where you belong.

© Sue Lueck Carlson
www.heavensrollcall.com