

A God-Morning

A God-morning to you, Stranger!
May blessings come your way.
There is a Father who loves you dearly
and is with you every day.
If your day starts out with sorrow
and you find it hard to leave your bed...
if you feel your life is over
and you cover up your head...
Then go out and feel the sunshine
so you'll know how life can be.
There's still hope in the horizon.
There's so much for you to see.
God loves you unconditionally.
Only He can heal your heart.
Give Him this pain you're bearing and believe He'll do His part.
Live your life anticipating
all the blessings God has planned.
Don't forget - this is your God-morning.
Now arise and take a stand!
