

A God Who Is Faithful

Time cannot ease the pain of losing you or erase the tears I've cried,
but I will trust a God who's faithful
and was with you when you died.
The Bible says our days are numbered,
but I find it hard to understand
why today you were taken from me
and it wasn't what we planned.
Tomorrow I will begin my life without you
and through the pain I will carry on.
You were the gift that God has given me.
Your memory will help me now that you're gone.
Thank you, God, for the love that surrounds me.
Thank you, too, for the peace I have found.
You are the One who gives my life meaning
and with you I am on solid ground.
