

A Special Valentine

I knelt down on my knees today, because you're on my mind.
I asked God to help me share his love with a special Valentine.
Our paths may never cross on earth, but even if they do,
I asked God to bless you richly and take good care of you.
It makes no difference where you live or what your name may be,
Because it comes straight from my heart and it's a gift God's given me.
If ever you feel you are alone and that your life has been in vain,
Please remember you are a child of God
And he'll help you through the pain.
You didn't "just happen" on the earth. You are part of God's big plan.
There is nothing that you cannot do, but you must believe you can.
I know what pain and suffering is. It's tried to destroy my life full force,
But I've learned when evil does attack that Satan is it's source.
That's why I send this poem to you. I refuse to let Satan win.
God is the Source of all that's Good and Jesus defeated sin.
That means when you're down and you need a friend,
I'll be here to share God's love.
You have value on earth and I pray one day we'll meet in heaven above.
So on this day, dear Valentine, I wish you so many things,
But most I pray you'll feel God's love
And the blessings my poem brings.
