

Angels Hold Him

Come, My Child. We'll cry together. I know the pain you're going through.
Please know my arms are always open. You're not alone. Let me comfort you.
There are no words to explain your heartache. In earthly terms, it can't be done.
The world is filled with pain and sorrow, but here in heaven are the souls I've won!
I was with your baby the day it happened. Though the body died, his soul's with me.
He's now in heaven where angels hold him. When your time comes you, too, will see.
The days ahead will be filled with heartache, but I will stay right by your side.
I'll hold you close and give you blessings in exchange for every tear you've cried.
I know the sadness when a child dies. My own son died many years ago.
He conquered death and ascended to heaven to show all souls the way to go.
One day you'll see your baby in heaven so keep the faith. He's here with Me.
Now live the life that I have planned for you. One day you'll know what you can't see.
