

Christmas Is Jesus

*Soon it is Christmas. What a joy it will be.
When I can spend time with Jesus and he can spend time with me.
Santa may be coming with Rudolph and his sleigh,
But the gift that Jesus brings will never go away.
It doesn't come from tiny elves or the North Pole where it is cold.
It's not something that can bend or break and it never will grow old.
The human eye cannot see it. You cannot hold it in your hand.
It doesn't even have a smell and you cannot make it stand.
It sounds so exciting and for me it is, too,
But there is so much more to Christmas and there's so much more to you.
Christmas is Jesus. Christmas is love.
Christmas is hope from heaven above.
Christmas is a new beginning. It's forgiving the past.
It's a time to be happy with a love that will last.
So today I will wish you a blessed Christmas Day.
I hope you spend it with Jesus and let him lead the way.*
