

Dreams Come True

I know you as you float about.
The dreams let go were filled with doubt.
I never realized 'til now
That dreams come true with time somehow.
If you keep on believing the day will come,
When your dreams and reality will be as one.
So hold on tight and don't let go
Or Satan will steal your dreams for show.
Just keep your eyes on God above
Aand remember they're sent from Him with love.
Be still. Have faith and believe it, too -
God wants your dreams to all come true!
