

Hold On

When the day is dark before you and you feel you want to cry,
Do not fear our Father's with you and he hears you question why.

This world is filled with heartache and life may be unfair,
But remember Jesus died for you and he always will be there.

Look up and all around you. Breathe in... what do you see?
The world will one day turn to dust. It's not how heaven will be.

In heaven there will be no pain. In heaven all is right.
The darkness that you feel right now will turn to morning light.

So hold on to Jesus through your pain.

Hold on to all that's true.

Jesus knows you feel like giving up,

But he hasn't abandoned you!

Tomorrow may be the greatest day you live

So get up and stand your ground.

Don't let Satan steal the joy where a blessing may be found.

No one knows the plans God has,

But please know that he loves you.

He is there the days you've lost all hope,

But he will help you through.

Look up when you feel alone.

Hold on! It'll be okay.

God will help you through this pain you bear

So take his hand and walk away.

© 2015 Sue Lueck Carlson
www.heavensrollcall.com