

I Am the...

I am the child God created in his image.

I am the Doctor who saved lives when another plane of terrorist crashed into a high school on graduation night.

I am the Fireman who rescued the baby from a burning 2-story home.

I am the Policeman who stopped the drunk driver "before" he got into his car and killed a family of 6.

I am the Soldier who fought to save our country from war.

I am the Teacher who taught the child to read and write so he could get a good job and stay off the streets.

I am the Scientist who discovered a cure for cancer.

I am the Astronaut who discovered a new planet with air and water that humans can live on.

I am the Prosecutor who sent the rapist to prison for life.

I am the Sister or Brother you always wished you had.

I am the Pastor who talked your friend out of committing suicide.

I am the Stranger who came to your rescue when your world fell apart.

Out of all the females in this world, God chose You to be my Mom!
Please give me a chance to love you and make you proud of me.
