

I Love You, Daddy

Daddy, where are you tonight?
Does Jesus sit and talk with you?
Are there little kids in heaven?
Will you ask God if I can come, too?
I promise I'll be good. I promise I'll wash my hands.
Are their animals up in heaven? Do little kids march in bands?
Mommy says she misses you and I know she cries a lot.
She says it's just her allergy, but grandma says it's not.
Daddy, can you wait a while?
The kids want me to come out and play.
Maybe you could give God a hug for me
And tell Him I'll come another day.
Remember, Daddy, I love you
And I'm still your little boy.
If you ever come back to visit me,
Will you bring me a special toy?
