

I'm Praying for You

There is so much pain and heartache tearing at your heart.
Are there questions still unanswered
that are ripping you apart?
I want so much to help you. Please tell me what to do.
If God would only let me,
I'd take this pain from you.
It's hard to see you suffer and I hate to see you cry,
but there's always emptiness
when a loved one has to die.
Please know I'm praying for you.
If you need me, I'll be there.
Remember that God loves you.
Give him this pain you bear.
