

In the Storm

Life can be so hard when the world attacks you.
Sometimes it's out of control and there's nothing you can do.
Neither crying or screaming or even getting mad
Can change a single minute and return all you had.
Death of a loved one or angry words that were said
Can never be erased and there's no way to raise the dead.
But... Jesus is the difference. He's the calm that you seek.
He's the love you are missing. He gives strength to the weak.
He's the sunshine in the storm. He's the full moon in the night.
He's everything you need when life's not going right.

Hold on to Jesus when you lose your way.
Hold on to Jesus when loved ones go away.
Hold on to Jesus when your world is torn apart.
Hold on to Jesus when you have a broken heart.
Hold on to Jesus no matter what the world may send.
You are safe in his arms. Jesus loves you, my friend.
