

Jesus, It's for You!

"The devil made me do it!" Have you heard that before?

As a child I believed he could knock on any door.

It was up to me to decide if I'd let him in.

I made the choice if I'd resist or I would sin.

Now that I am older, there is a different view.

I've read the Bible and what it says and I know it, too.

Satan still will tempt me and I'm not always strong.

Sometimes I give in to his lies if I stay too long.

We all are like that if we choose to admit.

Satan will tempt us, but we decide if we go or if we sit.

God gives us the power. God has our back.

Satan still lies and he still will attack,

But there is a difference because you know what to do.

When Satan knocks on your door next time, say...

"Jesus, it's for you!"

Then walk away knowing it's now in God's hands.

Let God fight your battles as he takes a stand.

Let go the temptation and go live your life.

You are now free to move forward and released from all strife.

"The devil made me do it!" I know that's not true,

Because each time he knocks, I'll say -

"Jesus, it's for you!"
