

Let Go

Are you looking back to the past when your loved one was with you?
Are you trying to remember all the things you used to do?
Are you wishing he would come back so the pain you feel will cease?
Are there questions left unanswered that are giving you no peace?
Do you know that up in heaven God promises no sorrow and each hurting soul he catches, he gives hope for each tomorrow?
Your loved one has found peace at last so put your heart to rest.
God wants to now take care of you because you did your very best.
Let go the painful memories that you're feeling in your heart.
You've suffered long enough with them. It's time they now depart!
So tonight when you go to bed, let your heart be filled with love, for all that God has given you and your loved one safe above.
