

Of BIG and Small

“Time to go home”, the Owner said as he turned off the light.

“Drive careful now! Eat a good meal
and have an excellent night!

Oh! Just one thing before you go, this letter I forgot.

You type so fast. It won't take long... or would you rather not?

You're on my team. You are the best. I knew you wouldn't mind.

The post office is on your way. A stamp?

I'm sure you'll find.

It won't be long before you're back. Your coffee is the best.

Retype this stack and send this fax.

Be sure to stamp the rest.

What's that you say? You're leaving us? I do not understand.

For all I've done and given you,
a new job you have planned?

Well, that's the thanks, I should've guessed, you'd leave this job undone

A better place I doubt you'll find. Your loss!

I know I've won.”

The papers stand upon my desk. The phone, it does not ring.

It's too late now; I wish I'd known.

I would have changed some things.

I finally learned that you're the key to open up the door.

Without you here, the door stays closed.

The business is no more.

It takes team work of big and small to make a business grow.

Each person there contributes much,

although it may not show.

So stop today and thank each one. You have so much to gain.

Talk from the heart. It's not to late.

Your business will remain.

“Time to go home,” the Owner said as he turned off the light.

“Drive careful now! Eat a good meal
And have an excellent night!

Oh... One more thing before you go. There's something I forgot.

I'm glad you're here. I'll get the door.

But mostly... Thanks a lot!”
