

Our Savior

*Jesus has risen! Be of good cheer.
Death's been defeated. Our Savior is here.
Come weak and weary. He's waiting for you.
Come sad and depressed. He wants you here, too.
Don't be discouraged. Come and you'll see.
He died for your sins and you are set free.
If you are hurting and feel alone in your pain,
Come to our Savior so the hurt can't remain.
Jesus has risen. He's no longer dead.
Your sins are forgiven. You can believe all he said.
Do you know that he loves you?
Do you know he's your friend?
Do you know he'll be with you
And he'll stay to the end?*

*Give praise to the Savior with your hands towards the sky.
Shout loud from inside you and let him hear your cry.
"We love you, Jesus! Thanks for all you have done.
We believe you're in heaven and you're God's only son.
There's no one else like you and to the world we all say,
Jesus has risen and he's with us today."*

*May the Love of Our Precious Savior Jesus
Surround You and Your Loved Ones Always.
Have a Blessed 2017 Easter!*
