

Quiet of the Night

Life is hard, but live in peace. Then remember most of all -
 There is a God who loves you
 And will come each time you call.
There are time that you will feel alone
 And you won't know what to do,
 But God always speaks the loudest
 When our hearts are broke in two.
In the quiet of the night when there's no one else around
 And your cries echo in the silence
 As your tears fall to the ground,
 Let God wrap His arms around you
 And hold you through the pain,
Because a flower cannot grow unless it gets a little rain.
 Now close your eyes and sleep awhile.
 Your life is in God's hands.
In time the sun will shine again and then you'll understand.
