

Someday

Someday...I'm going to come and see you.

I'm going to take you out.

I'm going to take you shopping and then we'll walk about.

Someday...I'm going to go to church with you and read the Bible every day.

I'm going to pray more often and watch the things I say.

Someday...I'm going to feed the hungry and bring clothing to the poor.

I'm going to help the sick and give them so much more.

Someday...I'm going to thank God for all the blessings and kneel down the times I pray.

I'm going to remember all the lessons and throw the rest away.

Someday...I'm going to remember the wishes I made long ago.

I'm going to remember the promises that I made but then let go.

Someday...I'm going to stop going to
and change someday to today

before my body turns to dust and my life has gone away.

God gave our lives to live each day
and to share the things we're given.

So before someday has passed away, let's stop...
and start a livin'!
