

The Beginning

Welcome to God's family.
We are blessed to have you here.
You're surrounded by your loved ones
and friends who hold you dear.
Your Baptism is a celebration blessed by our God above.
It's a bond that can't be broken,
because God sealed it with his love.
As you grow you'll learn of Jesus
and know the love he wants to share.
Jesus will always love you and he always will be there.
There will never be one like you.
You are special in every way.
You are created in God's image
so you'd be ready for today.
No matter where life takes you...
No matter what you do...
Today is the beginning of the walk God takes with you.
