

The Gift You Can't See

Soon it is Christmas. What a wonderful day!
Aren't you excited, because it's Jesus' birthday?
You don't have to dress up or wash the car.
You see... Jesus loves you just as you are.
I know up in heaven the angels will sing.
They'll give gifts to our Savior. What gift will you bring?
He doesn't need your money, your clothes or a toy.
He gave those things to you for you to enjoy.
All Jesus wants is the gift you can't see.
You can't hold in your hand or buy with money.
Do you know what it is? Take a guess. It's okay!
What's the best gift you can give Jesus on this Christmas day?
It's the gift of your time wrapped in love all around.
It's the unspoken word, when words can't be found.
It's the giving of your time for loved ones and friends.
It's sharing lots of hugs and then repairing loose ends.
It's saying more hello's and not just saying goodbyes.
It's trusting in Jesus, when there are tears in your eyes.
The gift you give Jesus? It's all up to you.
He still loves you the same... whatever you do!
Have a Merry, Merry Christmas. Stay safe and take care.
You are never alone for Jesus is there.

Wishing You and Yours a Blessed Christmas with Love.
