

There's No Guarantee

Tomorrow, tomorrow... there's no guarantee about tomorrow
So be careful what you do today.

Tomorrow, tomorrow... you can't borrow from tomorrow,
But today you still have time to say.

I'm so sorry I hurt you. I didn't mean to hurt you.
Please forgive me and please don't cry.

Words can leave scars that cannot be erased.
You never know if it's your last good-bye.

Our days are all numbered. We only have today.
Always make the most of all you do.

God only gives us now to live and honor him.
Life doesn't offer an undo.

Love each day and let the words you say
Build someone up so they'll be free.

God is great and he loves you.
Be the person you were born to be.

Don't live tomorrow when God gave you today!
