

You Are My Forever

I woke up this morning to a cold windy day.
The sun wasn't shining, because there were clouds in the way.
Life has been a challenge throughout this past year
And though Satan attacks me, I have nothing to fear.
You see... I still have Jesus deep in my heart
And when trials arise, it's there I will start.
Jesus is my reason for all that I do.
He makes every day a good day and he will for you, too.
I'm thankful and humbled that I can call out his name.
Even when I doubt him, he loves me the same.
Jesus, Precious Jesus, I give you my praise
And with my head bowed down, my hands now I raise.
You are the Son-shine behind each cloudy day
And when the darkness sets in, you show me the way.
There is nothing in this life that can take me from you.
You are my strength in weakness and you will see me through.
When sorrow and fear come knock on my door,
I know I can run to you and you'll help me once more.
Thank you so much, Jesus, for helping me to live.
You are my forever and my love to you I give.

Keep Jesus in your heart and have a blessed and safe Thanksgiving!
