

You Did

There are no words to tell you the feelings of my heart.
I pray for you and miss you, Mom, the times we are apart.
Our hearts will stay united. Our souls, they too, are one.
Miles will never separate us and the work that God has done.
There's a bond God forms with family that I believe we have found.
It's a connection of our spirit and through acceptance we are bound.
Though neither of us is perfect and we both have made mistakes,
We have learned the word "forgiveness" and move on for Jesus sake.
I look forward to each day and the time that we can share.
It's a part of "self" I give you back for always being there.
God knows how much you've sacrificed and the dreams that you let go.
God knows the times you suffered long in silence on your own.
I want you to remember, Mom, when you go to bed at night,
And you're filled with questions about your life
And if you did things right...
You did!

All children have mothers, but you are a "Mom".
I couldn't ask God for a better one!
I love you, Mom.
