

You Did

There are no words to tell you the feelings of my heart.
I pray for you and love you, Dad, the times we are apart.
Our hearts have been united. Our souls they, too, are one.
Miles will never separate the work that God has done.
There's a bond God forms with family that I believe we have found.
It's a connection of our spirit and through acceptance we are bound.
Though neither of us is perfect and we each have made mistakes, we have learned the word forgiveness and move on for Jesus sake.
I look forward to each day and the time that we can share.
It's a part of self I give you back for always being there.
I want you to remember, Dad, when you go to bed at night and you're filled with questions about your life and if you did things right... You Did!
All children have fathers but you are a "Dad"
and I couldn't ask God for a better one!
