

You're the Jewel

Life is filled with many heartaches.
There are things we'll never understand,
but if you trust in God the Father, He will take you by the hand.
God only wants life filled with blessings.
God only wants us to be free.
God only gives love unconditionally. God only knows what you can be.
Our bodies are meant to frame us.
They encase the jewel inside.
All things rare are of great value. Like God's son who once had died.
When others judge us by our bodies,
it just proves what they don't know.
Our self-worth comes from inside us. It's through our hearts we let it show.
Don't you know that you're important?
Without you, no one will see.
You're the jewel that God created so be the best that you can be!
